This rustic 16th-century chalet owes its charm to the perfect combination of rural traditions and the aesthetic aspirations of its former aristocratic landlords. Owners took great care to respect the balance between tradition and innovation, preserving the original structure and its characteristic features. The Chalet is located in the beautiful Val Pusteria in a delicate landscape particularly suited for your holidays full of walks and excursions to the near town of Brunico. You can also reach the nearest slopes of Plan de Corones through the Rioplatino ski lift, 10 minutes far from the Chalet.
